

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Water quality reports in

The Wannacomet Water Co. 2005 Annual Water Quality Report identifies the source of water, any contaminants that may be in the water, and what the potential health risks are. The report also lists water conservation initiatives performed by the company. Additional copies are available from the company at (508) 228-0022.

Hospital benefits from Low

Sconset summer resident and American Management Systems CEO George Cloutier has donated $35,000 to Nantucket Cottage Hospital's endowment fund.

The money was raised last year at Cloutier's "Boogie on Low Beach," which also benefited the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute. The event, voted "One of the 10 Best Parties of 2005" by the Boston Herald, was attended by more than 600 island residents, visitors and celebrities and paid tribute to island cancer survivors.

"We are very thankful for the support and generous donation by the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute and Mr. Cloutier," said Chuck Gifford, the hospital's director of development. "It is a gift that will keep on giving."

Last year's event honored Alan Costa and Binth Rustad and special guest Larry Lucchino, president/CEO and part-owner of the Boston Red Sox. Longtime Boston anchorwoman and island summer resident Natalie Jacobson was master of ceremonies.

"We are very pleased that this fundraiser has become such an enormous success. It's an honor to be able to make this contribution to the hospital," Cloutier said. "We're excited for this summer's party and promise that it will surpass the events of 2005."

Free Nantucket Sound "Boater's Guide" is now available to the public

As a public service to promote safe and environmentally friendly boating, Nantucket Soundkeeper has published the "2006 Boater's Guide to Nantucket Sound." The 48-page guide has all the information boaters and fishermen might need including tide tables, harbormasters,

Hospital benefits from Low Beach "Boogie"

Sconset summer resident and American Management Systems CEO George Cloutier has donated $35,000 to Nantucket Cottage Hospital's endowment fund.

The money was raised last year at Cloutier's "Boogie on Low Beach," which also benefited the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute. The event, voted "One of the 10 Best Parties of 2005" by the Boston Herald, was attended by more than 600 island residents, visitors and celebrities and paid tribute to island cancer survivors.

"We are very thankful for the support and generous donation by the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute and Mr. Cloutier," said Chuck Gifford, the hospital's director of development. "It is a gift that will keep on giving."

Last year's event honored Alan Costa and Binth Rustad and special guest Larry Lucchino, president/CEO and part-owner of the Boston Red Sox. Longtime Boston anchorwoman and island summer resident Natalie Jacobson was master of ceremonies.

"We are very pleased that this fundraiser has become such an enormous success. It's an honor to be able to make this contribution to the hospital," Cloutier said. "We're excited for this summer's party and promise that it will surpass the events of 2005."